

ANNA CALIBRI

Bergstraße 2 • 76182 Karlsruhe, Germany • anna.calibri@gmail.com • +49 123 456789 • linkedin.com/example

PERSONAL PROFILE

A results-driven Industrial Engineering graduate with international experience and a strong academic background in energy management and renewable technologies. Demonstrated ability to drive innovation and sustainability through roles at Porsche, BASF, and academic institutions. Adept at cross-functional collaboration, data analysis, and communication in fast-paced environments. Seeking to contribute to a forward-thinking organisation focused on energy transition, sustainability, or technology-driven development.

EDUCATION

Karlsruhe Institute of Technology (KIT), Karlsruhe, Germany

M.Sc. Industrial Engineering (10/2015 – 09/2018)

- Specialisation in energy management & renewable energies
- Thesis: "Development of German Energy Markets"
- Current grade: 1.5 (equivalent to [xy] in [US/UK] grading system)

Eberhard Karls University, Tübingen, Germany

B.Sc. Industrial Engineering (10/2011 – 09/2015)

- Specialisation in Production & logistics, energy management
- Grade: 1.6 (equivalent to [xy] in [US/UK] grading system)

Universidad de Salamanca, Salamanca, Spain

Erasmus scholarship to study abroad (09/2013 – 01/2014)

EXPERIENCE

Porsche AG, Stuttgart, Germany

Innovation & Concepts Development Intern (03/2017 – 08/2017)

- Conceptualised a small series of fully electric sports cars
- Compiled benchmark analyses on subjects incl. e-drives technologies, innovation, competitive brands

Energy Management, KIT, Karlsruhe, Germany

Research assistant (03/2016 – 02/2017)

- Organised public outreach events on energy innovations and technologies to increase awareness and engagement
- Researched competitive technologies and products

BASF SE, Ludwigshafen, Germany

Supply Chain Intern (07/2014 – 09/2014)

- Proposed a risk management guideline to be used by the Ludwigshafen plant
- Performed billing and accounting tasks

Service Consulting Group, Tübingen

Events Working Student (11/2013 – 07/2015)

- Planned and organised sports-themed events for students, identified potential sponsors
- Managed student support team during events

VOLUNTEERING

Student association KA-RaceIng, Karlsruhe, Germany

Marketing team member (since 10/2016)

SKILLS

IT: MS Office (Word, PowerPoint, Excel), C++, Photoshop

Languages: German (native), English (fluent), Spanish (very good), Japanese (basic), French (basic)